New Boston Aides Giving Testimony

Legislature Studies Phone Strike; Portsmouth Police Chief Absent

COLUMBUS (AP) — Mayor Vernal G. Riffe and Police Chief Fred Brown of New Boston answered a subpoena today for testimony before a House committee looking into a telephone blackout in Scioto County.

Committee members said they did not know whether Police Chief Hugh Rudity of Portsmouth would answer an order to appear.

He was reported too ill to attend committee hearings on a bill to authorize state seizure of struck utility companies. A special session of the Legislature is under way to consider such a bill.

All three officials had been scheduled for testimony at afternoon hearings of the committee.

At hearings Monday night, testimony was given by James B. Pugh, Dr. B. U. Howland, Paul E. Fohr and William H. Horr, all of the Portsmouth Committee on Law Enforcement. It was this group that asked Gov. Frank J. Lausche to call the special session of the Legislature.

John Green, editor of the Portsmouth Times, who also testified, was asked if Portsmouth has adequate law enforcement.

"No, sir, we don't," Green replied. "I want to qualify that. We have a new police chief."

PORTSMOUTH City Manager Robert E. Layton Monday appointed 62-year-old Albert Bailey, assistant chief, as acting chief succeeding Rudity, who is 70. Bailey now is in a Portsmouth hospital for treatment of a back ailment.

The strike by some 600 members of the Communications Workers of America began last July 15 against Ohio Consolidated Telephone Co. The firm has exchanges in 24 counties of the state. The Portsmouth area telephone blackout followed Oct. 15 after stoning of company exchanges there.

The union denied responsibility for strike violence.

The House Judiciary Committee began its hearings after Democratic Gov. Lausche appeared before the special session.

He pleaded for enactment of the utility seizure law by a Republican-controlled Legislature whose members expressed reluctance to grant him such powers.

Lausche, who will become a U.S. senator next January, will be succeeded by Republican C. William O'Neill.

It is my opinion," declared Lausche, "that in spite of declarations to the contrary made respectively by the union and the company, Portsmouth and southern Ohio have been chosen as the battleground upon which a national pattern with regard to the General Telephone Co. will be established."

General Telephone is Ohio Consolidated's parent company.

THE COMPLAINT declared that since the start of the strike the union and its local "have, by and through their agents and representatives, restrained and coerced and are now restraining and coercing employees of the employer in the exercise of rights guaranteed them . . . by using and threatening to use force and violence against the supervisors and employees of the employer impeding or preventing ingress and egress of the employer's supervisors and employees and others to and from the employer's premises; and destroying and threatening to destroy property of the employer."

It then listed 26 incidents of unfair labor practices.

Under NLRB law, the trial examiner, who will conduct the hearing, will make his recommendations to the board on whether the union is guilty.

It will be up to the board to decide whether the union should be ordered to "cease and desist." If there is such an order, and the union does not comply, the case then would go to the U. S. Court of Appeals, sixth circuit, for enforcement of the order.

The specific complaints included many, listing dates and persons involved, in which the union and its representatives were accused of "cursing, harassing, threatening and interfering with the work of supervisory personnel of the employer."

The complaint accused union members of throwing rocks, tomatoes and other objects at company employees.

Phone Union Ruled 'Unfair'

NLRB Lists 26 Counts In Long Labor Dispute

CINCINNATI (AP) — The National Labor Relations Board today issued an unfair labor practices complaint against the Communications Workers of America in the Ohio telephone strike.

The complaint consolidated cases against the Communications Workers Union and its Local 4372.

Under board rules, the unions have 10 days in which to file answers or explanations to the 26 specific allegations in the complaint or those "not denied or explained shall be deemed to be admitted to be true and may be so found by the board."

The strike, which started last July 15, has affected Ohio Consolidated exchanges in 24 Ohio counties.

The Portsmouth area has been without telephone service since mid-October as a result of violence in the strike.

Defense Chief Clips Army's Rapidly-Sprouting Wings

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Defense Wilson has clipped the sprouting air wings of the Army and forbidden it from operating longer range guided missiles than it now has.

Announcing his action late Monday, Wilson said the Army and Air Force couldn't agree how they would divide up their duties and areas of control in the expanding missile and aviation fields.

His order limited the Army's aviation mission to providing "local mobility" for "small combat units and limited quantities of material."

All other aircraft must be provided by the Air Force, which also was given "sole responsibility" for operating land-launched missiles of medium and long ranges.

The Pentagon left no doubt that the aim was to curb the Army's aviation ambitions. Deputy Secretary of Defense Reuben Robertson claimed the Army has been "enthusiastic about developing an Air Force of its own."

ASKED WHETHER the Army would be permitted to go ahead with previously announced plans for a much larger air arm than it now has, Robertson said: "We are not going to have a separate air force within the Army."

The order specifically forbids the Army from developing or using airplanes capable of bombing or otherwise attacking enemy troops in a battle area. All close support must be provided by the Air Force.

Possibly the heaviest blow dealt by the Wilson order to Army efforts and expectations was contained in the injunction against any Army planning at this time to employ "any other missiles with ranges beyond 200 miles."

The ruling left unchanged the Navy's roles in the missile and aviation fields. The Navy was given "sole responsibility" for operating intermediate range ballistic missiles from ships.

In current military language, an intermediate range missile is one that travels between 1,200 and about 1,500 miles.

The Navy was also left with the responsibility to protect its ships with whatever guided missiles it develops or might borrow from any other service.

Baldridge Ordered Returned To Pen

WASHINGTON C. H. — Common Pleas Judge John P. Case today ordered former Sheriff George S. Baldridge of Adams County removed to Ohio Penitentiary within the next five days to continue serving a sentence for first degree manslaughter.

Baldridge, who had been free under $15,000 bond, was taken into custody at his home near here by Sheriff Orland Hayes, shortly after the court issued its order. He was lodged in jail to await removal to the penitentiary.

He was found guilty last March in the slaying of game protector Irvin J. Patrick, and sentenced to the penitentiary. He won release from the prison after four days there on a stay of execution while his case was appealed.

RED CHINA HOPES FOR U. S. ACCORD

Western Officials Silent As Reds Stall Berlin Trains

FRANKFURT, Germany (AP) — Western officials refused today to say whether they considered serious Russian interference with movement of Allied military trains in and out of Berlin.

The Russians turned back a British train from Berlin to the West Sunday night, held up a U. S. train for two hours and delayed another U. S. train Monday night.

What the Russians were demanding was not clear. Allied officials said only that the Soviets had introduced new document procedures, but what they were neither U. S., British nor French officials would say exactly.

Russia's action in demanding new formalities at the frontier between East and West Germany aroused mild fears Monday night that the Soviets might wish to interfere with the free access of the Allies to Berlin.

The free government of Allied military trains through Communist East Germany was guaranteed by Russia in a four-power agreement signed after the 1948 Berlin blockade attempts by the Russians failed.

Since then four American trains and two British trains have run nightly in both directions between Berlin and the West. The French run two trains weekly. The trains have carried military personnel, their dependents, employees of the U. S. State Department and the French and British foreign ministries, and accredited correspondents. They all have traveled on official travel orders, issued by the Allied military commands with Russian translations.

One American source said the Russians were demanding that passports or military identification cards should be presented to Russian guards at the frontier.

Another report said the Soviets were demanding passenger lists.

One purpose of the Soviet step appeared to be to insure that only military personnel ride the trains. One newsman was forced to leave the American train Sunday night.

Western German railway officials reported that the U. S. military train from Berlin to Frankfurt was delayed by the Soviets Monday night at the frontier. But the Army would neither confirm nor deny this.

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP) — Revolt spread among U. N. delegates today against footling any part of the bill for clearing the Suez Canal.

Spearheaded by Russia, diplomats of varying political hues served notice they saw no reason why bystander nations should clean out the 47 ships and two bridges sunk in the waterway by Egypt's invaders or the defending Egyptians.

Latin-American and Asian delegates formed the bulk of the opposition to paying any percentages of the canal salvage costs. It has been estimated that upwards of $40 million will be required to clear the waterway.

Some delegates felt Britain, France and Israel should pay the entire bill. Others thought it should be covered by the owners and users of the waterway.

The General Assembly approved over Soviet bloc objections a $10 million grant to pay initial costs of the emergency police force in Egypt.

KANSAS CITY (AP) — The Erie Railroad needs a rate increase so it can buy rolling equipment to handle more business, says H. W. Von Wille, Erie president.

Von Wille, testifying at an Interstate Commerce Commission hearing on a proposed seven per cent freight rate increase, said the Erie does not have the equipment to take care of even 10 per cent more business.

He said the rate increase would add about $8½ million a year to the Erie's income, but virtually all of the amount would be absorbed by higher wage and materials costs.

Mao Studies Yankees Still Held In Jail

Chou En-lai Believes Antagonism Between Nations Diminishing

ROME (AP) — Communist China's President Mao Tze-tung was quoted today as expressing the hope that negotiations with the United States for the release of 10 Americans still held in Red China's prisons can be "favorably concluded."

The weekly Tempo Revista published an interview between Mao and Curzio Malaparte, well-known Italian novelist and newspaperman, in Peiping.

Malaparte quoted the Chinese President as saying, after an earlier reference to Roman Catholic priests and missionaries:

"Also there are many American prisoners in the jails of China. On these last our ambassador and the ambassador of the United States in Bern are discussing them in Geneva. Nor can I tell you what will be the result of these negotiations, since they are complicated and delicate. I hope, in any event, that it will be possible to reach a favorable conclusion."

TEN AMERICAN civilians are known to be still held in Red Chinese prisons. They include five Roman Catholic priests, one Lutheran missionary, two businessmen and two Army civilian employees.

U. Alexis Johnson, U. S. ambassador to Prague, and Wang Pingnan, Communist Chinese ambassador to Warsaw, have been meeting regularly in Geneva since Aug. 1, 1955, to negotiate release of the prisoners. Their talks have been generally deadlocked.

One of Mao's top deputies also talked optimistically Monday about the chances of success of the Geneva talks in an interview with American newsmen in Phnom Penh, Cambodia.

New York Men Injured When Car Overturns

Two New York men were injured, one seriously, when their automobile hit an icy spot on Route 22 and swerved off the highway early today.

The one car accident happened one mile east of the Pickaway-Fairfield county line at 9:20 a. m.

Nicholas Guggino, 23, Yonkers, N. Y. was the more seriously injured of the two. He suffered a broken left thigh, a compound fracture of the same leg near the knee and lacerations of the scalp. Injuries to Paul Gilbert, 22, New York City, driver of the vehicle, were not immediately determined.

ACCORDING to State Patrolman Gene Miller, the car hit an icy spot in the road, swerved off to the side of the highway and turned over in a field.

The two men, students at the University of Cincinnati, were on their way back to school following a trip to New York. The car was heavily damaged.

The PRAYER FOR TODAY FROM The Upper Room

Lo, I am with you always. (Matthew 28:20, RSV.)
PRAYER: Our Father, so often the cares of this life cause us to think of Thee as remote and impersonal. Forgive us our sins and help us to know the joy of companionship with the Holy Spirit. In the spirit of the Master we pray. Amen.

Police Search For Group Of Mag Salesmen

City police today were looking for three house-to-house salesmen who are accused of using high pressure tactics in selling magazines here.

Chief Elmer Merriman said that men came to the police station yesterday, asking permission to canvass the area. The chief, not authorized to grant written permission, warned the salesmen that if they did sell magazines here they could not use high pressure methods.

However, a Northend resident called the police station yesterday to complain that a salesman had come into her house while she was not at home and sold a subscription to her young daughters. The housewife was shopping at the time.

AFTER questioning her daughters, the Northend woman learned the young girls did not even know what they had paid for. The subscription amounted to $3.

Merriman urged city residents to call his office immediately if the salesmen are spotted. He promised that they would be required "to leave the city in record time."

Tomorrow's Query At CHS: "What Do You Want To Be?"

Circleville High School students will be briefed on various vocations Wednesday when the Kiwanis Club's Vocational Guidance Committee presents its Career Day at the local high school.

The committee, composed of Win Story, chairman; George Hartman; J. Wray Henry; Bob Huffer; Tom Bennett; Ray Carroll, and J. A. Cunningham, has arranged a fine program. Starting with assembly at 10:30 a. m., and continuing after lunch to 3:00 p. m., the program will include many speakers, all experts in their vocation. They will discuss the occupations.

The morning assembly will include an address by Dr. Collins W. Burnett, coordinator of student personnel at Ohio State University. Dr. Burnett will speak on the subject "College as One Challenge". Dr. Burnett holds a Master of Arts degree and the Doctor of Philosophy degree from the university.

He received the Kiwanis Award as the student, showing outstanding teacher promise during his undergraduate work at Ball State Teachers College.

FOLLOWING the lunch period, the students will assemble in rooms assigned to their first choice of a career. There the teachers will introduce the speakers.

The careers chosen by the students are listed below, including the conference speakers:

Ashville Breakin Reported Solved

The Pickaway County Sheriff's Department today reported that a case involving a break-in at an implement store in Ashville several days ago has been solved.

The department said three Columbus juveniles admitted the burglary. They are being held in the Columbus Juvenile Detention Home.

Picked up in Columbus, the youths admitted the break-in to Sheriff Charles Radcliff and Deputy Charles Felkey, who traveled to the detention home to question the boys.

Hunter-Trapper Found Sunday Given Heavy Fine In City Court

Outdoorsman Dane Patrick, who lives near the Pickaway-Ross county line, learned yesterday that hunting and trapping on Sunday, plus violation of other game laws, can be expensive.

Brought into mayor's court at Kingston, Patrick was fined $100 and costs for resisting arrest, $15 and costs for hunting and trapping on Sunday and $15 and costs for not having his name and address on his traps. The three accusations were filed by Game Protector Clarence Francis.

The unusual case Sunday when Game Warden Francis discovered Patrick hunting and running traps on an uncle's property just south of the Pickaway-Ross county line in Ross county.

When Francis attempted to take Patrick in, the accused man refused to go along. And to underline his refusal, Patrick allegedly pointed a gun at the game protector.

TO AVOID bloodshed with a possible fatal outcome, Francis departed from the scene without the accused game violator.

After obtaining a warrant for the man's arrest, Francis went to Patrick's home yesterday and made the apprehension. This time Patrick offered no resistance.

Patrick got off relatively light on the resisting arrest accusation. The maximum fine for such an offense is $500.

In view of this and other game violations committed in this area, Francis urged all hunters to obey state game laws. He especially emphasized that hunters should show more courtesy toward farmers on whose land the game-seekers hunt.

Most of the game violations in this area so far this year have been the result of persons hunting without permission. In several cases land owners have given men permission to hunt in certain areas of their property, but the hunters reportedly over-stepped this privilege by hunting exactly where they were not permitted.

Ritual For First Nominations Held By Local Philos Lodge

First nominations for office were conducted during a district meeting held last night at the local Philos Lodge No. 64, Knights of Pythias.

Lodge members receiving first nominations are as follows:

Chancellor—commander, Clarence Radcliff; vice-chancellor, Paul Turner; prelate, Guy Lane; master of work, Marvin L. Cook; secretary, O. E. Barr; financial secretary, Raymond Reichelderfer; treasurer, Lloyd W. Mast; master of arms, Lloyd Fisher; inner guard, Frank Woodward Jr.; outer guard, Walter Leist; and trustee, Harry Styers.

Second nominations and election of officers will be held Monday evening during a regular meeting. A grand lodge election in which only past chancellors are entitled to vote will also be held at this time.

PICKAWAY County Deputy Edwin Irwin, Ashville, presided during last night's district meeting. George H. Thompson, Past Grand Chancellor of Ohio, gave a short address.

T. M. Glick, a 50-year member of the local organization, was also present. The number of other past office holders present were as follows:

Chancellor commanders, two; past chancellors, 28; members of DOKK, 19; county deputies, 4; past district deputies, two.

Many guests from other lodges throughout the state were also present.

Local members serving on the lunch committee were R. E. Nau, Orrin Stout, Dave Winks and George Wharton.

County Received $663,595 In State School Assistance

Schools in Pickaway County received $663,595.55 under the school foundation program during the fiscal year ended June 30, 1956, State Auditor James A. Rhodes reports.

Total foundation disbursements for the year were $136,052,840.96, of which $104,136,806.56 went to the schools; $22,453,209.40 to the teachers' retirement system; $3,714,610 to the school employees' retirement system; $2,275,100 for school construction; $1,827,715 for school rehabilitation, and $1,645,400 for school buses.

Noble County received the least, $346,817.87, while Cuyahoga County got the most, $12,771,198.73. Thirty-nine counties received in excess of one million dollars.

Another Trial Granted Dean In Death Case

COLUMBUS (U-P)—Homer Jack Dean will go on trial for the second time, probably in January, for the 1947 slaying of a Clintonville real estate salesman.

Dean was granted a new trial Monday by Franklin County Common Pleas Judge Joseph M. Harter after a five-day hearing.

"I have to live with myself," said Harter, "and my conscience demands that there be a new trial ordered."

Harter said he granted the new trial on the basis of new evidence and of "prejudice against the defendant" at the 1950 trial from which Dean was sentenced to life in Ohio Penitentiary.

During the hearings, two Columbus police officers told the court the murder victim's wife, Mrs. Elmo Rice, was unable to identify the man who left her home with her husband the night he was killed. At the 1950 trial, Mrs. Rice positively identified Dean as the man she saw with her husband that night.

After the new trial was announced, Dean said, "I just felt like crying. The hardest thing in the world to do is to serve time for something you didn't do."

HERE'S HOW... MAKE A COAT CLOSET
A closet for storage of outdoor wear and for guests' coats and hats may also serve as part of a room-divider.
The frame is of 2 by 4-inch lumber. Nail the base to the floor; then add the vertical members, toe-nailing them to the base with 16-penny common nails. Next, add the middle supports and the frame top.
Panel the inside with 1 by 10-inch lumber, using 6-penny finishing nails. Add a 1 by 12-inch shelf about 10 inches from the top, with a clothes-hanger rod beneath.
The top is two 1 by 12-inch boards. The outside panels may be 1 by 12-inch lumber, edge-glued, or hardwood plywood, fastened with 6-penny finishing nails.
The entrance trim may be ripped from 1 by 4-inch lumber if molding is used. If the trim is butt-jointed to the sides, without molding, use 1 by 4-inch trim.
Sliding doors may be made or purchased.

Some Business Chiefs Start Using Caution

Return To Cold War Basis Seen As Reason Back Of New Strategy

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP)—Most trade and manufacturing concerns are flying high. But caution is coming back into the thinking of a growing number of businessmen today.

It showed up first in the stock market. Daily ups and downs there have been attributed to war scares as they wax and wane. The return to a cold war basis—with the possibility of even worse—has played a large part in the planning of both stock traders and industrialists.

But there is a group in Wall Street—even if a minority as far as sounding off is concerned—who have been wondering about the high price of stocks and the high speed of industry as it climbed to new heights.

In the market the worry has been over the debated question of whether stock prices have risen faster than earnings and are now anticipating what industry will be doing well into the future.

In industry the worry is whether 200 ships in East and Gulf or another levelling off period may be ahead. Earlier this year industry paused after a headlong upward rush and levelled off for a time. In the summer, and especially after the end of the steel strike, it shot upward again.

Industrial production apparently climbed to a new high in November. Department store sales are running a bit ahead of a year ago. Personal incomes, on average, are at a new high. In many places employment is at a record high.

Few, if any, see any marked backing down from these heady heights.

But some are beginning to preach caution. Before they left for Hollywood, Fla., for their annual convention, a number of members of the Investment Bankers Assn. of America were advising their clients to take a cautious approach to common stocks and were praising the virtues of bonds and tax exempt securities.

The uncertainties they see in the outlook include the touchy affairs in the Mid East and in eastern Europe.

The uncertainties here at home include the yet to be tested willingness of motorists to buy as many of the new cars as Detroit thinks they should. There is also the general question of higher

"Mary Haworth's Mail"

DEAR MARY HAWORTH: I have been married almost 30 years to a man who drinks. After three separations, his promises to reform have been broken. His drinking is bad enough, but his gambling and adultery are too much.

The last time we reconciled I really thought things would work out; but due to his subsequent behavior I am almost a nervous wreck. He just goes off, and I never know where, or what's happened. When he comes home I can hardly stand him.

I tell him I don't think it's right to spend money that way, and to take disreputable people in our car, while never taking me any place.

Our children are married, and they cordially beg us to visit them; but Jeff will seldom go. I don't drive; but if I were to go on the bus I know that he will get out on more sprees.

My mother lives alone in another state and would love to have me with her. I know I could make her last years happy; and wouldn't it give us both more pleasure, than my waiting hand-and-foot on a man who doesn't appreciate a good wife?

Would it be doing my children an injustice? There is no real affection between them and their father; and they abhor the way he treats me.

K. Y.

DEAR K. Y.: It is axiomatic that birds of a feather flock together and water seeks its own level.

And the fact that you've always struggled against Jeff's drinking, gambling, libertine routine indicates that you have very little in common with him—except the mistake of having married him and produced his children.

In my opinion, it is a form of moral degradation of oneself, to stand around in servile spirit, awaiting moments of cooperation or consideration, seldom forthcoming, from a disloyal debauchee and wastrel character, such as you find your husband to be. This isn't part of your duty to him, if it reduces you to sick despairing futility in double harness.

My advice is: don't wait around any longer, hoping for Jeff to change his ways and give you a break. If you wish to visit the children, go as you can, independently of him; and don't give a thought to his truancy in your absence. That's his problem. If and when he gets the pitch of genuine concern on your part, it may affect him as your distress never could—and mark a turning point in his life.

Finally, if you see good years ahead with your mother, and only more hell if you stay with Jeff, it would be sensible to join her, I think. How could it be unjust to your children to ease their heartache about your welfare?

Lausche Sends 13 Names For Senate's OK

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Ohio

State Senate Monday received 13 appointments from Gov. Frank J. Lausche for confirmation. It also received, from Lausche's director of mental health and correction, three appointments to advisory boards.

Lausche's appointments, which generally were ignored in two earlier special sessions this year, included Hershel G. Holland of Cleveland to the state pardon and parole commission for a term ending March 31, 1959.

Three of the governor's appointments were to the state board of agriculture. They were Emerson Mizer of Cadiz for a term ending Oct. 10, 1962; A. G. Madden of Madeira Hamilton County, to Sept. 30, 1953, and Walter C. Pigeon of Wilmington to Sept. 30, 1962. Senate Democrats renamed Sen.

Joseph W. Bartunek of Cleveland to his fourth term as minority leader in the 102nd general assembly starting Jan. 7.

The Senate also adopted a resolution of tribute to Sen. Robert A. Pollack (R-Stark), dean of the Legislature who died recently during his 13th term.

Red Navy's Size Second Only To U.S.

LONDON (AP)—An authoritative survey says Russia has built a navy second in size only to the United States, but that it lags far behind the Americans in guided missiles and atomic ships.

The one advantage of the Soviet Union reported in the 1956-57 issue of Jane's Fighting Ships is its great fleet of more than 100 submarines—far more than the United States. Jane's said a large percentage are long-range.

The United States in recent years has concentrated on building new types of submarines, some powered by atomic energy, rather than increasing the size of its submarine fleet.

A NEEDED LESSON

THERE IS A good point for future candidates of both parties at state and local levels to remember. It is that politicians are having less and less luck riding into office on the coat tails of a popular national leader.

For Republicans this seems to be especially timely. The campaign had not progressed far until reporters discovered that President Eisenhower was running far ahead of the state and local candidates of his party while Adlai Stevenson was running considerably behind other candidates on his ticket.

An explanation may be that Republican candidates were not skillful in presenting issues and a record appealing to voters in their precincts. Stevenson fumbled the ball in some important plays, but few Democrats were caught in that mesh. They proceeded to expound their own views.

This is a situation that should be fortuitous for the political structure of the nation. A popular leader with "yes" men all around him could be a menace to the Republic. But local and state candidates in close touch with the people will win or lose according to how they call their shots, regardless of Washington.

If this lesson is learned, there will be less coat tail riding and more earnest debates on state and local problems.

MOSCOW'S REAL WEAKNESS

REGARDLESS of the action of the Russians in Hungary, the revolts of the satellites have left the Soviet in a weaker military position, according to some expert observers.

The revolts cast the most serious doubts upon the reliability of Soviet army units in case of war against the West. Many of the Hungarian army units sent in to quell the Budapest revolts actually joined the rebels or passed arms and ammunition to them.

There were reports that some of the Soviet troops didn't react as they were expected to do. It was only when tough Mongolian troops were brought in from eastern Asia that the crackdown began to function effectively.

So the Russians cannot trust local communists and communist armies to run eastern Europe. Yet they wouldn't dare tie down hundreds of thousands of their own troops to control the satellite peoples.

In short, they seem to lack the force to hold down the entire red empire as was done in Stalin's day. This is only one of the many developments which make the soul-searching in Kremlin circles painful at this time.

CABINET CHANGES

IT WOULD be surprising if the President did not have plans for some cabinet changes. No President ever finished a second term with the original cabinet intact. New blood may also be injected into some of the boards, bureaus and commissions of the federal government.

Of top interest is the gossip that the President will accede to the desire of Secretary Charles E. Wilson of the Defense Department and Secretary Sinclair Weeks of the Commerce Department to retire. There have not been many rumors that other cabinet members will leave or be replaced at this time.

If these changes are made, it will evi-

George E. Sokolsky's

These Days

At least three wars have occurred since the development of the A and H bombs in which neither was used. These were the Korean, the Indochina and the Suez wars. It is also to be noted that these bombs were not used in the Hungarian Revolution which is one of the most startling events in history, in the course of which heroic human beings fought tanks with their bare hands. The Russians did not use any unconventional weapons.

The question then arises whether these weapons will ever be employed at all as instruments of war. As modern warfare is different from previous forms, it is altogether possible that the bombs will only be used to establish positions, to mark relative strength, to indicate potentials of destruction.

The fear of atomic warfare is already so effective throughout the world that it is forming and altering public policy and has strengthened principally the weak and backward countries who, although they do not possess any bombs, are able to involve in war those countries which do possess the bombs.

Up to Suez, a balance of power was maintained between the NATO and Warsaw Pact countries. Both possessed the bombs and both were testing and manufacturing bombs. Suez has definitely weakened NATO; it has weakened American leadership. The possession of the H-bomb in huge quantities has not produced an ordered world which is the objective of NATO.

The Hungarian Revolution has weakened the Warsaw Pact countries. This was a revolution against Communism; but even more, it engendered disorders throughout the Soviet world, establishing that the Kremlin under Khrushchev is unable to maintain the disciplines over eight or nine hundred million people which Stalin was able to maintain. From that standpoint, the Hungarian Revolution was a victory over the H-bomb which Russia dared not use for genocide, employing other effective but less startling means.

If the premise is correct that neither side dares to use the H-bomb, then it becomes an instrument of peace. The fear of the bomb is, of course, radioactive strontium and other calcium affinities which the explosion of the bomb produces and which do not otherwise exist in nature.

The fact is that these radioactive chemicals cannot be controlled. They go into the atmosphere, float about in it, and only fall upon the earth on raindrops in relatively small quantities at a slow rate, which means that it can take many years for the total amount of calcium-consuming radioactive material of one bomb to come down.

But the real danger is that no one can guarantee where the fallout will be. Radioactive strontium and kindred materials, floating in the atmosphere, can fall anywhere, upon the country that manufactured and exploded the bomb as well as upon its enemy or upon neutrals or upon the seas.

Thus far, the explosions for testing have not endangered the human race and it is possible for scientists to measure the quantity of radioactive strontium, etc., in the atmosphere and know that it is not reduced or increased to a danger point, but should an H-bomb war occur with enormous and ever-larger bombs exploding in many parts of the world, it is well within the realm of possibility that sufficient radioactive strontium and other calcium-consuming materials would be released to have a deleterious effect upon the entire human race from a pathological as well as genetical standpoint.

dently not be as a result of Democratic criticism. If this factor were involved, Secretary Dulles of the State Department and Secretary Benson of Agriculture might be the first to leave. Both are reported to be held in very high esteem by the President.

CHAPTER 36
"DON'T be so proud of yourself, Steve," I said. "Tell me what it was in the recording that tipped you off that Leone murdered Anita."
"It was all in the Stubby tape," said Steve. "Do you remember what a struggle Anita had to keep Stubby from passing out?"
"Yes."
"At one point, before she'd got him to admit he had killed his partner, she said she had some lovely Scotch in the kitchen. She suggested a drink; she thought that might keep Stubby awake and talking."
"I remember that, yes."
"Did she go and make the drinks?"
"No... she couldn't have. She never left the room."
"That's right. The conversation between Anita and Stubby was continuous; she didn't leave him for a second. Yet a few minutes later they each had a drink of that Scotch that was in the kitchen."
"Yes," I said. "Someone else got it for them."
"Stubby was too drunk to realize it, but he and Anita weren't alone in the apartment. Leone was there, listening from a bedroom. And when Anita needed help to keep Stubby talking, she co-operated. She got the Scotch, slipped it to Anita. Then there was something else that indicated a third person... the phone call at the end of the tape. It came after Stubby had coaxed out Anita. Anita answered the phone and said, 'Who is it? Oh, just a minute...' The caller wanted to speak to someone else... Leone Webb."
"But how could you be sure it was Leone?"
"That was on the Stubby tape, too. When was that recording made, Connie? What date?"
"No date was mentioned," I said.
"Not directly," Steve said. "You're being proud of yourself again."
"Barton," Bolling said, "it's all right. You can be proud of yourself again."
"Thanks. Well, Leone lived with Anita for a while, so she was obvious vote for the accomplice. But, specifically, Connie, remember what Stubby kept muttering about? Garry Moore: What Is He?

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Thomas Garrison Morfit, who has 25 how ties and runs a $12½-million-a-year business, has a problem.

He knows what he does for a living, but he can't figure out what he is.

Behind a door marked "Shop Foreman," near a desk guarded by a stuffed imitation bulldog, Morfit sat and mused aloud over his predicament while a yellow parakeet flew about the office looking for a quiet place to park and take the load off his feathers.

"I sing a little, but I'm not a singer," said Morfit. "I dance a little, but nobody would call me a dancer. I also crack a few jokes, but I'm not really a comedian. I really don't know what I am."

But everyone in show business today knows what Thomas Garrison Morfit (who's known as "Garry Moore" during business hours) has become. He's the housewives' delight, and a real kingly in the wonderful world of television.

Garry and his pixie pals—Dorwood Kirby, Denise Lor and Ken Carson—brighten the lives of some 11 million homemakers with their antics on "The Garry Moore Show," a daytime program now in its seventh year.

"All of a sudden we find we are the oldest consecutive entertainment show on TV—and that rather frightens us," said Garry. "We hesitate to whoop and holler about the fact we're the oldest. We don't want to call attention to our age."

But Moore is one of those lucky mortals time seems to pass by. Although he is 41, and has been in radio and TV for 21 years, his grass roots humor and wheat crop haircut give him the air of an eternal college boy.

What explains the amazing success of this ex-sports announcer? A Broadway flesh peddler would say, "It's because every girl who sees him wants to mother him whether she's 9 or 90."

But a better reason, perhaps, is that in an industry which sometimes tends to regard people as faceless symbols Moore always remembers they are people. His humor is sometimes robust, but never cruel. He never reaches for a laugh at the expense of destroying anyone's human dignity.

Although Garry hits a bigger single audience as weekly master of ceremonies on a quiz show, his daily morning network show takes most of his time. The program is a 12 to 13 million dollar a year operation now, and Garry has to supervise a staff of 85 people, including six writers.

Turkey Supper, Election Highlight Circle Meeting

Approximately 93 Attend Occasion

Approximately 93 members and guests of the Family Circle of Trinity Lutheran Church met in the parish house for their annual Thanksgiving turkey supper and election of officers.

The long tables were appropriately decorated with Fall leaves and berries, squash, small turkey cut-outs and Thanksgiving napkins.

The supper, with the exceptions of salads and desserts, was prepared and served by a committee, under the chairmanship of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Young. Committee members were: Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mowery Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Delvin Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Barthelmas and Mr. Elmer Strous.

During the business session, election of officers for the coming year was held with Mrs. Galen Mowery being elected as president.

Her assistants include: Mrs. Lloyd Cox, vice-president; Mrs. Forrest Easterday, secretary; Mrs. Delvin Smith, treasurer and Mr. Walter Pickle, reporting secretary.

The Circle voted to decorate the interior of the church for the coming Christmas season. December 16 is the date set to start decorating.

Miss Mona Wells gave a reading on the Pilgrims and the Mayflower.

The program committee comprised of Mr. and Mrs. Galen Mowery and Mrs. Ruth Wells, introduced Mr. and Mrs. William Defenbaugh, who entertained the group by showing pictures of their trip around the world.

Mr. Defenbaugh narrated the pictures and Mrs. Defenbaugh displayed and explained the gifts brought home with them.

The next meeting will be held December 14 at 6:30 p. m. as a combined carry-in supper and Christmas party. A gift exchange will be held during the party.

Reid Home Scene Of Grange Meet

The Pickwick Grangeaters Council met in the home of Margaret Reid.

Don DeLong, new Grange Youth Chairman, and Harold Furniss and Margaret Reid have visited all the Granges in Pickaway County concerning the memorial fund.

The group is having a Grange fun night, December 27. A covered dish supper will be served, movies of some of the Grange youth activities will be shown, followed by dancing.

All Grange youths, their parents and other interested Grangers are invited.

Patty Clark and Dwight Beougher gave reports of their trip to the State Grange Convention, representing the Pickaway Grange Youth, as the prince and princess.

The group is planning to enter the fourth degree and drill team contests, which will be given in March. The degree team will be in charge of Margaret Reid and Harold Furniss. Don DeLong will be in charge of the drill.

Extension Clubs To Hold Meeting

"Christmas in other lands" will be the theme for the annual county cooperative program of Home Economics in Extension. This will be held December 5 from 11 a. m. to 3 p. m. in St. Philip's parish house.

Each club has selected a definite country and will present the type of program they so desire in relation to Christmas activities for that area.

The noon luncheon will be an International Smorgasbord with foods common to the "other lands" being served.

All interested homemakers are cordially invited to attend.

You taste it in every steaming cup—the unusually rich, tangy flavor of nature's choicest coffee. For that's what Folger's is... a unique and individual blend of naturally more flavorful Mountain-Grown coffees!

Experts agree that these rare mountain coffees, grown in remote regions where there is an abundance of fertile volcanic soil, warm tropic rain, and year-round sunlight, have the most satisfying tang and flavor of any coffee known today.

And you will agree that the rewarding flavor and fragrance you discover in Folger's is the finest you have ever enjoyed. Distinctively rich. Unusually tangy. Unmistakably Folger's—the Mountain-Grown coffee!

So much richer in flavor that you are urged to use 1/4 less than with lesser flavored brands.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Middle East is short of many things, but it never runs out of trouble. As if the Suez affair weren't bad enough, a Syrian crisis now is brewing on the edge of it. Could he a bad one, too, and another threat to world peace.

The main reason: Russia unquestionably has gained a foothold in the ancient Syrian desert land. Some American authorities are concerned that Syria may be sucked all the way into the Communist orbit.

Syria has been accepting arms from Russia. Also, all but unnoticed in the furor over Suez, pro-Soviet officers have seized control of Syria's 60,000-man army. It would surprise nobody if the army seized formal control of the government.

Now add these facts:

1. Syria would be the obvious staging area for the "volunteers" Russia still says she is ready to throw against the British, French and Israeli forces which have not yet withdrawn from the Suez area.

2. Moscow radio charged Monday that Syria's well-heeled neighbor Iraq has been trying to flood Syria with arms for use in a revolt against the government. With a perfectly straight face, Russia denounced "subversive activities" of this kind as "criminal."

3. Iraq followed through within hours with a request to the United States for "more defensive arms" including planes and anti-aircraft guns. This country has been sending munitions to oil-rich Iraq but the amounts never have been disclosed.

There are other factors aplenty, but these alone show the stored-up lightning in the situation—with the United States already involved.

They indicate, too, the extent to which the camel's nose is under the tent, to use an old desert saying. In other words, how far Russian penetration of the Middle East is proceeding.

Trouble is nothing new to Syria, which has known little else since the days of the conquering Greeks 2,000 years ago.

But trouble is the last thing the Missouri-sized country needs right now.

She's in bad shape economically as a result of the crisis over Suez—and part of this trouble is home-grown.

With no interference from the authorities, three stations on the pipeline running across Syria from Iraq to the Mediterranean have been blown up—a prize example of cutting off one's nose to spite Britain's face. Syria lost millions of dollars in badly needed revenue—she gets a rakeoff on oil flowing through the lines. She also cut off a major source of her own fuel.

A glance at the map will show you Syria's strategic importance. Turkey—which only Monday accused the Syrians of fomenting trouble with neighboring countries—lies to the north. Iraq, Jordan and Israel form a rim on the east and south. Lebanon fits in like a jigsaw puzzle on the west, leaving Syria with a short but vital stretch of Mediterranean seacoast between Lebanon and Turkey.

A handier operating base for the Russians would be hard to imagine.

It would be equally hard to imagine Turkey and Iraq, which could crush Syria like a nut in a cracker, standing by idly while such a thing happened—to say nothing of the reaction of the United States and Britain.

250 Farm Bureau Members Form Cast For Big Pageant

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—For most farmers attending the 38th annual convention of the Ohio Farm Bureau Federation here, the past few days have been filled with serious, thoughtful discussion about all of today's farm problems.

But for some 250 men and women, all but a handful of them farm people, it's been a time of high fun and frolic and, if you can picture it, stage fright.

They're actors. At least they were Monday night when they staged a 1 hour pageant called "When Neighbors Meet." It was a chronicle of the Farm Bureau Advisory Councils to celebrate the councils' 20th anniversary this year.

But they were more than actors. They made up the dialogue, too. "And what imaginations," said Miss Alice Beardsley, author of "When Neighbors Meet" and, together with Miss Alice Schiebert, co-director of the pageant.

"All during rehearsals—if you can call an hour or two here and there rehearsals—we left it entirely up to the players to say what they wanted. Of course, they knew the general theme, and they knew about what each scene called for, but the dialogue itself was their own.

South Pole Colony Size Increasing

Arrival of the reinforcements was expected to give the construction work a big boost. Bad weather had delayed the second landing.

'Fierce' Demand Seen Ahead For Steel Plate Supplies

CLEVELAND (AP)—A tanker-building program sparked by the Suez Canal crisis will in the months ahead make competition for steel plates "more fierce," Steel Magazine said today.

Even without the problems in the Middle East the demand for plates has been outrunning supplies, the weekly metalworking journal said. The same is true for structural shapes, it added.

"Steel" said 23 tankers are under construction or on order, application has been made to the U. S. Maritime Commission for authority to construct another 31, and President Eisenhower wants still another 50 built.

"The Suez crisis will make certain that at least half the vessels will be built," the magazine said.

Another flight is planned soon to fly in five more construction workers and Dr. Paul A. Siple, the antarctic veteran who will head the scientific party wintering at the polar base during the International Geophysical Year.

plates and a temporary shelving of such requests for facilities making other steel products, "Steel" said.

The national output of steel for the week ended Nov. 25 was 2,474,202 net tons, which represents 100.5 per cent of rated capacity, "Steel" reported. Scrap prices moved up 50 cents to $62 a ton last week, but there appears to be "no danger of a pinch in domestic supplies," the magazine said.

Great Advances Make the 1957 DeSoto

the most exciting car in the world today!

EXCITING NEW FLIGHT-SWEEP STYLING—Incredibly low the new DeSotos illustrated are only 4 feet 7 inches high. Yet, thanks to DeSoto's new steel-cradle frame there's plenty of head room and space to stretch. Tail fins are cantilevered and up-swept for extra driving stability. It's Flight-Sweep '57... the new shape of motion.

EXCITING NEW TORSION-AIRE RIDE—Standard equipment on every 1957 DeSoto. The smoothest, softest ride you have ever experienced. Unequaled for safety and control, Torsion-Aire eliminates nose-dive stops, even from high speeds... takes corners without lean or sway.

EXCITING NEW 4-SEASON AIR CONDITIONER—Cools in summer. Heats in winter. Hot, muggy summer air is cooled and dehumidified, filtered free of sneezy pollen and annoying dirt. In winter the same unit keeps you comfortably warm even on the coldest days.

EXCITING NEW TORQUEFLITE TRANSMISSION—A light touch of a handy push-button sets into action the finest automatic transmission ever built. TorqueFlite delivers tremendous take-off acceleration. Absolutely no shift delay. You get a smooth flow of mighty power.

EXCITING NEW V-8 POWER—The most advanced engine design in the industry. Three new power giants that won't take a back seat to anything on the road: the 295 hp Firelite, the 270 hp Firestone and the 245 hp FireSweep. Higher compression ratios and increased displacement again make DeSoto the top performance car in the medium price field.

EXCITING NEW LOWER PRICE—For 1957 DeSoto presents the exciting FireSweep series... priced just above the lowest. There are five glamorous FireSweep models to choose from: 2-door Hardtop, 4-door Hardtop, 4-door Sedan and two new station wagons.

See and Drive the 1957 DeSoto now at...

Fleet Texan Wins Double In Olympics

Bobby Morrow Scores In 100, 200-Meter Sprints For Sweep

MELBOURNE (AP)—Fleet Bobby Morrow scored the first Olympic sprint double since Jesse Owens in 1936 today as Uncle Sam's athletes surged to five more gold medals in another smashing display of land and sea power.

Morrow, the Abilene Christian flash from San Benito, Tex., who had won the 100-meters Saturday, led an American sweep in the 200-meters with a record-smashing performance matched by Al Oerter of New Hyde Park, N.Y., and his two teammates in the 400-meters.

Oerter broke the old standard to inspire another American 1-2-3 finish.

While the track and field forces excited another capacity crowd of 100,000 at Olympic Stadium, Yale's stout-hearted eight-man crew set the pace for America's finest rowing day at nearby Ballarat.

Beaten in shocking fashion in the first round, Yale climaxed a brilliant comeback by beating the same crews that had whipped them earlier after earning another chance in the repechage.

Yale's triumph, the eighth straight for the U.S. in the eights since 1920, ended a glorious day at Lake Wendouree where Americans also took the pairs with coxswain and pairs without coxswain. Silver second-place medals went to Uncle Sam's double sculls and four-oared crew without coxswain.

Failure of Jack Kelly, Jr., brother of Princess Grace of Monaco, to follow in his father's footsteps in the single sculls was the major U.S. disappointment in rowing. Kelly finished third in his last try to match his dad's Olympic victory of 1920.

Russia won two gold medals in rowing, the double and single sculls, but failed in track and field. At the end of the day, Russia trailed the U.S. by more than 100 points.

The United States has a total of 16 gold medals to Russia's six and had won nine of 13 events in men's track and field.

Adhemar Ferreira da Silva of Brazil set a new Olympic record in winning the hop, step and jump although Bill Sharpe of Philadelphia surprised with a fourth-place leap of 52 feet 1 1/4 inches, probable the best ever by an American. The Brazilian covered 53 feet 5 3/4 inches breaking his own mark set in 1952 at Helsinki.

Although Poland's Ezbieta mark and tied her own world record by taking the women's broad jump with a leap of 20 feet 9 3/4 inches, America's Willie White of Greenwood, Miss., exceeded all expectations by finishing second in 19 feet 11 3/4 inches.

The sweep in the 200-meters and the discus were the second and third of the current Olympics for Uncle Sam, which already had finished 1-2-3 in the 400-meters hurdles.

Another strong American performance is expected Wednesday in both the discus and the 110-meter hurdles in which all three U.S. men won their heats — Jack Davis of Glendale, Calif., Lee Calhoun of Gary, Ind. and Joel Shankle of Durham, N.C. Parry O'Brien who sets a world record almost every time he appears is considered a cinch to repeat his 1952 winning performance in the shot put.

Morrow established himself as the top of the list of the world's best sprinters by taking the 200-meters. He will have a chance to make it three gold medals in the 400-meter relay event Saturday. Andy Stanfield of Jersey City, N.J., winner of the 200 and a member of the winning relay team in 1952, tied Owen's record of 20.7 while finishing a stride behind Morrow. Thane Baker of Elkhart, Kan., who will run with Morrow, Stanfield and Leamon King of Delano, Calif., in the relay, was third in the 200.

Oerter, a student at the University of Kansas, shattered the Olympic discus record with a throw of 184 feet 11 inches, followed by Fortune Gordien of Brightwood, Ore., who was fourth in 1952 and third in the 1948 Olympics. Desmond Koch, an Air Force man from Shelton, Wash. took third to complete the sweep.

Brown, Cisco Get Nod By Buckeyes

COLUMBUS (AP)—Right end Leo Brown of Portsmouth and fullback Galen Cisco of St. Marys will co-captain Ohio State's 1957 football team.

Brown is the first Negro ever to captain a Buckeye football team. He and Cisco, both juniors, were selected by a vote of this year's squad members Monday night at an appreciation banquet.

Coach Woody Hayes, after introducing members of his coaching staff and the senior squad members, told the banquet: "We're on our way back. Come out and see us next spring if you don't believe it."

The City Merchant basketball squad, playing their first game in the Columbus class A league, stormed to a 56 to 35 win over the Columbus VFW Scouts Post Monday night.

Playing a classy floor game, the local merchants commanded a 39-19 lead at intermission. Maintaining their lead throughout the second half, the roundtowners were never headed.

Jack Young earned scoring honors for the night, dropping in 25 points on 10 baskets and five foul shots. Teammate Rhoades assisted with 11 markers.

Dowler, with eight points, was high man for the Columbus quintet.

The city merchant five is managed by Warren Grover.

Gaye Stewart is the first former National Hockey League player to referee in the league since King Clancy.

Rocky, Louis Pick Moore To Win Title

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—Former heavyweight champions Rocky Marciano and Joe Louis, who settled their ring differences five years ago, today heartily agreed that ancient Archie Moore would win the heavyweight title Friday night against youthfully ambitious Floyd Patterson.

The one-time heavyweight rulers were in town for the welterweight bout between Ralph Dupas of New Orleans and Germany's Siegfried Burrow Monday night.

Marciano was the referee and Louis a second for Burrow as Dupas won a ridiculously easy 10-round decision in his debut as a welterweight.

Marciano predicted Friday night's 15-round battle for boxing's top prize would be close, but he gave Moore the edge on punching power and experience.

"I've seen Patterson on TV a few times and he's got plenty on the ball," Marciano said. "But it's hard to go against Archie's big punch and his experience and the edge has to go to Moore."

Louis, knocked out by Marciano in 1951 as the Rock pursued the crown, was more emphatic in his support of Moore, who is trying for a second time to win the championship.

"Patterson just isn't rough enough to handle a puncher like Moore," the one-time great Brown Bomber said. "I look for a knock-out by the tenth round."

Sokolsky's These Days

It is this fact, not sufficiently discussed, which is a deterrent to the use of the H-bomb and therefore prevents either of the two nations which can use the bomb from doing so.

The A-bomb cost the United States about $2,600,000,000 to produce before the first explosion. Only a government could finance such a venture by taxing its people in time of war. Only the United States could afford such an expenditure. American efforts were secret and the secrecy was maintained against the entire world, including the American people but excepting the Kremlin which stole the bomb from us.

Russian development, however, has since been independent and has kept pace with us fairly well until today, we accept the assumption that the two powers are fairly balanced for destructive purposes. On the use of atomic energy for peace purposes, the development is different and may be greater in other countries. For instance, Great Britain has moved faster than we have in this respect.

Etta Miller, administratrix of the estate of Frank Griffey, deceased, Plaintiff,
-vs-
Defendants,
No. 17906

NOTICE BY PUBLICATION
Catherine Foster, whose address is unknown and cannot, with reasonable diligence, be ascertained, will take notice that Etta Miller, administratrix of the estate of Frank Griffey, deceased, on the 5th day of November, 1956, filed her petition in the probate court within and for the county of Pickaway, and state of Ohio, alleging that the personal estate of said decedent is insufficient to pay his debts and the charges of administering his estate; that she died seized in fee simple of the undivided one half of the following described real estate, situated in said county to-wit:

Being a part of Lot No. Two (2) of the Subdivision of the land owned by J. A. Beckett (deceased), and a part of Survey No. Seven Thousand Four Hundred, Fifty-nine (7459) Virginia Military District:
Beginning at a stake in the center of the Commercial Point and Harrisburg Turnpike; thence N. 87 1/4 deg. W. 221 feet to a stake; thence N. 30 deg. E. 194 feet to a stake in the center of the Commercial Point and Harrisburg Turnpike; thence with said turnpike S. 47 1/2 deg. E. 308 feet to the place of beginning, containing Eighty-two rods (82) of land, more or less.

EXCEPTING FROM THE ABOVE the following described real property: 143 of an acre or 3040 sq. feet of land, more or less, and being a part of an 82 rod tract of land deeded to Frank Griffey and Martha Griffey by Deed bearing date of March 9, 1916 and recorded in Deed Book 95, page 39 Pickaway County Records, and the tract herein excepted being more particularly described as follows: Beginning at the northeast corner to Cleve Barnhouse tract of land S. 95 feet to the southeast corner of Cleve Barnhouse tract; thence W. 38 feet to a point, thence N. 65 feet to the center of the Harrisburg and Commercial Point Pike; thence with the center of said road 54 feet to the place of beginning, containing 143 acres of land, more or less.

The prayer of said petition is for the sale of said premises for the payment of debts and charges aforesaid. The person above mentioned will further take notice that she has been made a party defendant to said petition and that she is required to answer the same on or before the 18th day of December, 1956.

BUNKER IN LINE AS AMBASSADOR
WASHINGTON — Ellsworth Bunker, retiring president of the American Red Cross, was reported to be in line today for appointment as ambassador to India replacing Sen-elect John Sherman Cooper of Kentucky.

Bunker, a Democrat, served as ambassador to Italy and to Argentina during the Truman administration. He formerly headed the National Sugar Refining Co. Informed officials said they expect President Eisenhower to announce Bunker's appointment before Prime Minister Nehru of India arrives here Dec. 16 for a four-day round of conferences.

Cooper, a Republican, plans to fly to India starting Wednesday to lay the groundwork for the Eisenhower-Nehru talks. He has been away from New Delhi since May.

Ringgold EUB Grabs Lead In Cage Loop

In two county church league cage games played last night at the local national guard armory, Pontious EUB toppled the previously undefeated Trinity Lutheran squad from the ranks of the undefeated by a score of 56 to 49 and Ringgold posted a 58-31 win over the St. Paul Lutherans of Ashville.

The victory by the Pontious crew moved them into second place in the league standings. The loss dropped the Lutherans into third place.

High man for the winners was Hinton with 19 points. Red Wilson of the Trinity squad also garnered 19.

In winning their third tilt in three starts, the Ringgold five now dia arrives here Dec. 16 for a four-day round of conferences.

Cooper, a Republican, plans to fly to India starting Wednesday to lay the groundwork for the Eisenhower-Nehru talks. He has been away from New Delhi since May.

More Action In Football Than Baseball

CINCINNATI — Bob Coates, who beats the publicity drums for Xavier University, is displaying a set of figures which, he claims, shows the football fan gets more action for his money than does the baseball customer.

Last summer, Coates noticed a news story saying that in a 2 1/2 hour baseball game there was actual play in only 1 minute out of each 15.

This fall, Coates and his helpers kept a stop watch on all of Xavier's 10 football games. They came up with statistics showing actual playing time averaged 13 minutes, 31 seconds in an average game lasting 2 hours and 5 minutes, not counting halftime.

That, he said, figures up to action in 1 minute out of 9 for football.

Coates said that in his football checks, the stop-watch was started the instant the ball was snapped from center and was stopped the instant an official's whistle signified the ball was dead.

Athletics Teach 'Code Of Ethics'

MELBOURNE — Jesse Owens, American Olympic champion, said today athletics teach people a code of ethics which stand by them all their lives.

He said: "Athletics teach people to respect the rules and that is rather essential these days."

"Most of the youth of today are decent, clean-living types. However, about three per cent are giving the black eye to the remaining 97 per cent."

Pickaway To Meet Lancaster Cagers
Pickaway Township High School cagers are slated to meet Lancaster St. Marys in a court battle to night on the Pirate floor.

The Pirates have won their first two starts so far in the early season, downing Salt Creek in the year's opener and posting a win over Unioto last Friday.

Tonight's contest is scheduled to get underway at 7 p. m. when the two reserve teams meet for the preliminary. The varsity tilt will start approximately 15 minutes after the first game is completed.

Hornung Lauded By Green Bay

PHILADELPHIA — Paul Hornung, the fabulous quarterback of Notre Dame's not so fabulous 1956 football team, has joined the rather illustrious list of national football league bonus babies.

The 210-pound Irish runner, passer, kicker deluxe was selected Monday as the NFL's 1957 bonus choice by the Green Bay Packers.

Green Bay Coach Lisle Blackbourn, in describing Hornung, said "he has the greatest potential of all Notre Dame backs."

Mighty Georgian Chalks Record
MELBOURNE — Paul Anderson of Toccoa, Ga., broke the Olympic weight lifting record Monday winning the heavyweight title with a total lift of 1102 pounds.

In giving the United States the fourth gold medal in weight lifting, Anderson also broke the Olympic jerk record. His jerk was 413.37 pounds.

Second place in the heavyweight division went to Argentina's Humberto Silvetti, who scored the same total as Anderson but who outweighs Anderson by 13 pounds, 316 to 303.

Fake Check Artists Go All-Out In Rush Of Holiday Season

Fraud Expert Lists 12 Rules For Tradesmen

Bogus Checks Jump About 50 Percent This Time Of Year

Check fraud artists are planning to turn this year's "white Christmas" into a "green Christmas" of dollars fleeced from the careless, the unobservant, and the flustered.

With holiday shopping during the next several weeks setting new records, check artists will probably set a few records of their own by increasing their "daily take" from one and a half million dollars a day to two million dollars.

These predictions were made by George W. Adam, check fraud consultant for a leading manufacturer of checks and check protective equipment.

Adam based his prediction on the fact that check fraud artists work hardest and are most successful during the holiday season when stores are crowded and clerks are busiest. During this peak business season, clerks and store owners fail to scrutinize carefully the credentials of customers attempting to cash checks.

DATA collected by Adam during the past 36 years indicates that check fraud jumps about 50 percent during the Thanksgiving to New Year's period over the average for the rest of the year. The total annual illegal harvest is estimated at about $450 million.

To curtail the "green Christmas" of check fraud artists, Adam offers the following 12 basic rules for holiday check cashing:

1. Don't let anyone hurry you. It's your money being paid out.

2. Don't cash a check for a stranger without positive identification. Social security cards and auto licenses are easily forged.

3. Don't cash checks signed with a rubber stamp, written in pencil, or showing any signs of alteration.

4. Beware of out-of-town checks.

5. Be extra careful when cashing checks while banks are closed. This is a favorite time for the check crook to operate.

6. Don't cash checks for juveniles. They are not legally responsible and often are used as "runners" for check crook gangs.

7. Don't cash bank counter checks. They are designed for use only in the banks issuing them.

8. Do not accept pre-endorsed checks. Have all checks endorsed in your presence, and place the presenter's address on the check.

9. Don't cash checks for amounts considerably more than the amount of the purchase. It may be an attempt to defraud you of cash in addition to merchandise.

10. Make sure all checks are the checks of existing persons or concerns, and that the check is drawn on an existing bank. Completely fictitious checks are top favorites with check crooks.

11. Be sure your own checks are protected checks which cannot be successfully altered with ink eradicator or by erasures. One type of check flashes hundreds of previously invisible reproductions of the word VOID when ink eradicator is applied to the surface.

12. You can assure yourself of additional protection for your own checks by using a mechanical checkwriter and signer in preparing them. Machines which shred the amount indelibly into the check fibers, and which print a multi-colored protected facsimile signature, "handcuff" check crooks by making it virtually impossible for them to raise or alter your checks.

Christmas Eve Holiday Ordered

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower has ordered a Christmas Eve holiday for federal employees.

The action gives them a four-day Christmas holiday since Christmas falls on a Tuesday.

The President's memorandum also directed federal executives to adopt "a liberal policy for the granting of annual leave" during the holiday season. The White House pointed out that this means, for example, that many employees who wish may have another long New Year weekend.

Emergency Status Asked In Portsmouth

PORTSMOUTH, Ohio (AP) — Portsmouth City Council is expected to consider Monday a request by City Manager Robert E. Layton that a state of emergency be declared during the telephone blackout here.

Layton said the declaration would enable him to use city charter powers to initiate a new training program for police officers. The program might require them to work more than eight hours a day he explained.

The city manager said a four-week investigation of disorders during the long strike against Ohio Consolidated Telephone Co. indicated that police were disorganized and unable to cope with the situation.

Major Problem Facing Ohio Assembly: Hikes In Salaries

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — When the 102nd Ohio General Assembly convenes in January, one of the major financial problems it faces may be salary increases for the state's 37,000 employees.

Nelson L. Watkins, executive secretary of the Ohio Civil Service Assn., said a committee representing the association will meet next Saturday to work on the question. It hopes to draft some definite proposals for presentation to the lawmakers.

Watkins said the move is in keeping with past policies of the association of not only making adequate provision for the state workers but also to plug the drain of employees to private employment because of the attraction of higher salaries.

The secretary said the committee plans to work along two fronts after getting data from the Bureau of Unemployment Compensation and federal employment agencies. This information will deal with the wage scales being paid by private industry for the same classification of employment in the state.

Watkins said the committee might get information indicating there is a gap of from 10 to 15 per cent between wage levels of state and private industry. The association hopes to narrow this gap.

Another factor must be taken into account if the state hopes to keep its current level of efficiency, Watkins said. It involves the veteran workers. He pointed out that there are 16,008 employees, or 43.26 per cent, currently in the "step five" salary bracket which means that because of their length of service, they have no hopes of salary increases until the present law is amended.

Each step in a salary range represents a boost in salary of about 5 per cent, Watkins said. No estimate is available on the approximate cost to the state of any salary increases.

Ohio CIO Sending Aid To Hungary

COLUMBUS (AP) — The Ohio CIO Council has contributed $500 to the AFL-CIO free labor fund for Hungarian relief through the International Confederation of Free Trade Unions.

"Our contribution to help the Hungarian victims of Communist oppression," the council said, "is in keeping with the tradition of the American free trade union movement in supporting the cause of freedom in all countries."

last July 15. Telephone exchanges here and in surrounding Scioto County have been idle since Oct. 15.

The company has said it would not restore service until "law and order is a reality." The exchanges were closed after company facilities were stoned. The union denied any part in the strike violence.

Layton said his police training program would call for a "three-platoon roving system" to cope with any future crowd violence.

"Ah-h-h...beer at its golden best!"

The truth is that good golden Hudepohl starts out much the same as other fine beers. With quality ingredients... brewed with patience and skill. But then we do something different... What we do is a closely guarded secret. It's a special, costlier step in brewing... a finishing process. And what it does is make Hudepohl even brighter and more golden. So we named it Process 14-K. And that's why Hudepohl is more than just another fine beer. It's "14-K!" Which means... it's a beer at its golden best!
